

The First Yellow Brick

Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and do not rely on your own understanding;

Think about Him in all your ways, and He will guide your paths.

Proverbs 3:5-6 HCSB

Your ability to choose the right path is in direct relationship to your submission to God

How smart was Solomon?

Wisdom and information are not enough.

Choosing the right path begins with submission.

What does it mean to acknowledge God in all your ways?

Solomon's mistake, and our mistake, comes when we trust in _____ more than God.

*We need more than information, common sense,
or wisdom to choose the right paths.*

Pride, fear, lust:

What's preventing you from depending on God?
